

Protect Your Online Privacy With VPN Proxy One

From

Today, it's more important than ever to protect your online privacy when using the internet. Connecting to your local coffee shop's public Wi-Fi while enjoying your favorite cup of coffee and pastry is undoubtedly convenient but puts you at risk for a data breach. Even when using your home Wi-Fi, you're vulnerable.

How can a VPN protect you online?

Using a Virtual Private Network (VPN) protects your data while you use other networks, keeping your browsing history, passwords, etc. hidden. A VPN also blocks your browsing history from your internet service providers. If they were to experience a breach, access to your internet data could fall into the wrong hands.

IDShield's VPN Proxy, One from Trend Micro™, utilizes bank-grade data encryption to prevent incoming and outgoing internet traffic from being tracked, hacked, or censored. It turns a public hotspot into a secure Wi-Fi. The IDShield Individual Plan protects up to three devices, and the IDShield Family Plan protects up to 15.

IDShield also provides access to Trend Micro Anti-Malware Protection, Mobile Security, and a Password Manager.
